The Latest From Law Actors

Law Actors is pleased to announce the addition of Michael Rubin as Vice President and Regional manager of our Midwest region. Michael is based in Cleveland, Ohio.

Law Actors has just completed a deposition program with Katten, Muchin, and, we will be participating in programs with McDermott, Will & Schiff Hardin within the next month. Using Law Actors in your deposition program training is the best way for your associates to learn this most important skill. The use of actors for this program makes for a real life experience for the associates as they learn to deal with different personalities and situations. When it comes to deposing witnesses, there is no substitute for experience. Deposition training, featuring "witnesses" from Law Actors, is an excellent way to prepare your associates to take effective depositions and hone interview skills in a controlled environment where mistakes serve as a lesson to be learned, not a weakness. Law Actors also can help you create an in-house deposition training program, or add new dimensions to your existing deposition training. To learn more about our
